FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

07/20/05 STATE POLICE MAKE ARRESTS FOR
FRAUDULENT EMISSION TESTING

The Connecticut State Police working with the Department of Motor Vehicle conducted a criminal investigation into fraudulent emissions testing that was being performed by two employees at a service station in Norwalk. State Police Detectives assigned to conduct the investigation interviewed witnesses and utilized investigative information obtained from the state of the art security system in place to monitor emission testing. This multi faceted DMV security system insures the integrity of emission testing and allows the Department of Motor Vehicle to monitor the emission testing system. Detectives submitted to Superior Court an arrest warrant affidavit for the arrest of two employees of the Norwalk service station.

Today 07/20/05 at 8:30 a.m. two arrests were made by State Police Detectives. Both accused, being advised of the active arrest warrants, surrendered at Troop-G in Bridgeport.

ARRESTED: VALBUENA, Luis DOB: 4/6/76 171 Emmery Dr. E. Stamford, CT.

CHARGES: Forgery 2nd (6counts) Computer Crime 5th (6 counts)

ARRESTED: WILLIAMS, Sean DOB: 4/20/70 27 Neptune St. Norwalk, CT.

CHARGES: Forgery 2nd (2counts) Computer Crime 5th (2counts)

Both accused were processed at Troop-G Bridgeport and released on $ 1000 non-surety to appear at GA # 20 Norwalk on 08/01/05
